

Asbestos cases to continue for years, warns Telegraph

13 September 2003 09:00

In a wide-ranging piece charting the history of insurance claims against asbestos damage, the Daily Telegraph forecasts that payouts will continue for years to come.

In the UK alone, insurers have paid out £300m to date for asbestos-related claims, and last week the world's three largest credit rating agencies warned that insurers will have to increase their reserves further.

Daily Telegraph 13/09/03 page 35